SEASON #2 (WINTER 2002) RECAP:

During the second season of play, the Phantoms did not have what it takes to again make a run into the playoffs. The team finished sixth in the seven-team-league with a record of 4-5-1. Despite having nearly the same roster as a season ago, the team would not make the playoffs. Despite problems with team chemistry, the Phantoms were ready to begin another season of hockey. However, with news of Rivertown moving teams up into higher leagues, the Phantoms had to figure out who was staying and who was going. Several players also played on a team that was moving into the Copper league, so which team would they play for? The Phantom's would still play in Copper, however, with several teams moving up, players had to decide which team to play for. After nearly extending the decision deadline to just over 2 weeks, some players still did not know which team to choose. As a result, the Phantoms could not wait any longer for a decision and started recruiting players for the 2003 Spring league. Within a matter of days, the Phantoms had filled their roster, with players that did not know each other. The 3rd Season of Phantom Hockey would be soon begin.
