NOTE: For the Spring 2010 season, every team (except Roman Empire) competed in a three-game style play-off format for a shot the championship game the following week. After the three game format for each team, the top two teams would advance to the championship game. Seeding for the three games was based on each team's regular season finish. If after the three-game play-off format teams were tied, goals against would be used to break the tie-breaker.
