SEASON #11 (SPRING 2005) RECAP:

With the Phantoms only capturing three victories a season before and not qualifying for the post-season for only the second time in franchise history, the team was ready to make a complete turn-around. The first move occurred when the team put fellow Phantom veteran Matt Zehr in charge of team operations. Matt's first change was to trim the roster to 8 skaters for the time in team history. As the Copper season took shape, it appeared the new Phantoms were successful on turning the team around as the Phantoms jumped into a 5-1 record during the first six games. However, the Copper league would then prove to be one of the most competitive seasons yet, as the Phantoms would be over-powered in the second half of the season, capturing only one victory in the teams last four games. However, the thrilling 6-5 victory over Maly's in the final game of the season would seal the post-season for the Phantoms as they achieve the goal of returning to Play-off Saturday. During the post-season, they would suffer a 3-0 defeat to 40-Ounces of Freedom, who would go on to capture the championship. In closing, a vast improvement from the team a season ago and overall a decent season with Copper so competitive.
