SEASON #7 (SPRING 2004) RECAP (BRONZE A):

After the Phantoms completed their sixth season, numerous players were interested in joining a team that has been one of the most successful at Rivertown. As a result, for the first time in the team's young history, two Phantom teams would take to the rink. The original Bronze Phantoms would head into their second season in Bronze, while the new Phantom team would reside in Copper. As the Bronze team entered the season, the team would experience a horrible start, posting only a 1-5 record during the first half of the season. With the Phantoms having roster vacancy's during the start, the thought of trying to post numbers that it did during the team's first season in Bronze was nearly lost. During the last half of the season, the team would finally post some wins, as the team rose to 3-2 in its last five games, including a 7-2 victory over the Plyforms to close out their regular season. With only four teams in league, every team would advance to the post season. During the play-offs, the Phantoms would suffer an embarrassing 6-1 loss to the Plyforms. The play-offs were a tale of two goaltenders, a Phantom goalie who gave up many weak goals, and a Plyforms goalie who was nearly rock solid. For the second time in two seasons, the Phantoms would suffer a first-round exit. The Bronze Phantoms ended with a 4-8 record.
